Lent 2

Theme: Awe & Beauty in Creation ~ Preacher: Silvia Purdie

A very warm welcome to you all, whether this is your first time or thousandth time in church. You are welcome whatever your age, gender, marital status, disability, poverty or wealth, race or sexuality. You are welcome whether you have a deep and mature faith in Christ; are uncertain and still seeking; or have no faith. If you are new to church, please do not hesitate to ask one of those on duty if you have any questions.

You are invited to stay for Morning Tea, which will be served in the Lounge after the service.

Order of Worship

(Congregational responses are in bold italics)

Lighting the Fellowship Candle: Psalm 96:10-13a (Elizabeth Taggart)

Let the heavens be glad, let the earth rejoice!

Let the sea roar, and all that fills it;

let the land give praise, and everything on it,

all the trees of the forest, sing for joy before the Lord.

Welcome to worship at Cashmere Presbyterian Church

Opening Hymn 77: For the beauty of the earth

Call to Worship: 'God of all beauty', by Marnie Barnell

God of all beauty, creation is our treasure charged with your presence and speaking with your voice;

holy your world, you made it for your pleasure:

here where you dwell we know you and rejoice.

God of all comfort, you meet us in our sorrow:

silence and darkness are shadows of your throne.

Leaving the past and trusting in tomorrow,

loved and restored, we rest in you alone.

God of beginnings, our father and our mother,
life-giver, teach us to be creators too:
help us to greet your image in each other sharing your work in making all things new.

God of compassion, flow through us like a river,
bright living waters that only you can give:
praising the gift and looking to the giver
all humankind shall turn to you and live.

Time with the children, appreciating the art works

Kids song: Our God is so big!

*Our God is so big, so strong and so mighty
there's nothing our God cannot do. (x2)*

The mountains are his, the valleys are his
the whole world is under his smile

*Our God is so big, so strong and so mighty
there's nothing our God cannot do.*

Blessing prayer

God, you plant the seed. Spirit, you send living water:

You are our life, our truth and our hope.

Jesus Christ, in you we move and grow and have our being:

You are our life, our truth and our hope.

Lord, bless these precious children with your love. Amen.

Healing Service, with Communion, will be held today at 11.30am. At a service of healing we bring to God our own frailty and brokenness. We also bring our concerns for others and for the world. Above all, we come to the God who knows our needs before we ask, and whose love revealed in Jesus Christ is stronger than suffering and death. All are welcome to attend this service.

Next Sunday's service will be led by Hospital Chaplain Sandra Wright-Taylor.

World Vision Sponsorship: A total of $53.90 was collected at the Family Service last week for Vory, our World Vision child, and for work with the children in the church. Thank you for giving so generously.

Used Stamps are collected by PWANZ, and the funds raised are used for Mission work. If you have used stamps to donate, they can be left at the church office, or given directly to Judith Harrington.

Pastoral Care & Hospital Visiting: As we do not always hear when someone is sick or has gone into hospital, we may miss out on visiting them. Elisabeth Cooch, Convenor of the Pastoral Committee (ph. 332 1272), asks that you tell her, or Silvia, or Gail in the office, if you know of anyone in this situation.

Calling all singers...! We thoroughly enjoyed carol singing at Christmas time in local Rest Homes, and we've have asked to come back at Easter time. Would you like to help lead a sing-along session of gospel songs, on Tuesday 16 or Wed 17 April? Please let Elisabeth Cooch or Silvia know.

St Martins Presbyterian Church re-opening!!

News from Anne Shave, who is on a 2 month residential scholarship:

Vaughan Park is an Anglican conference centre on the edge of the Long Bay regional park, which is on the North Shore in Auckland. I am settling into routines of writing and exercise and am also appreciating some wonderful cooking, as all my meals are provided here. Vaughan Park overlooks a beautiful beach, and during the warm weather of my first week and a half here it has been lovely to walk along the beach every day and to swim in the sea a few times, too. The water is much warmer than it is in ChCh!

On my first Sunday here some friends took me to Orewa Presbyterian Church, and on my second Sunday I went to an Anglican church that a friend attends in nearby Campbell's Bay. The closest church to Vaughan Park is Anglican, and as I don't have a car here I imagine that will be the church I attend on the Sundays I am here. I will be thinking of you at Cashmere Presbyterian this Sunday, and especially praying for you and those who come to the healing service.
